The Negro's Friend

HON. W. E. HUMPHREY

There were times in ancient Rome when the oppressed people were forced to look for men, to defend them, who had thoughts of their own and would dare not express them. There are some brave men in Congress who never fail to defend those who are oppressed. The State of Washington, one of the greatest States in the United States honors the men who represent them. There is one in particular, Hon. William E. Humphrey, who has the honor to represent seven counties in the First District of Washington, Republican of Seattle, was born March 31, 1862, near Alamo, Montgomery county, Ind.; was reared on a farm; attended common schools, and graduated from Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Ind., in 1887; was admitted to the bar in 1887, and practiced law at Crawfordsville 'till 1893; in 1893 moved to Seattle, Washington, where he has since practiced his profession; in 1898 was elected to the office of corporation counsel of the city of Seattle; was reelected to same office in 1900; was elected to the Fifty-ninth and Sixtieth Congresses, and reelected to the Sixty-first Congress from the newly constituted First District, receiving 39,643 votes, to 21,089 for Charles R. Miller, Democrat, 1,468 for D. Burgess, Socialist and 26 for A. H. Sherwood, Prohibitionist.

With such a record The Bee as well as the people of this country will honor such a man. In a recent speech on the Negro question delivered on the occasion of an Emancipation Anniversary celebration, among other things, Mr. Humphrey said:

"The progress of the Negro race since the emancipation has been the most marvelous in all the annals of the human race. Do you say that this race is lacking in moral and spiritual life? I deny it. Look at their schools and churches. Contrast these with the ignorance and brutality of slavery. Do you say they are lacking in honesty, and their tendency is criminal? I deny it, and point to our jails and penitentiaries.

For in spite of the fact that they are often not granted a fair and impartial trial, and are often brutally murdered without even a pretense of hearing, yet in proportion to the population they do not furnish as many criminals as the dominant race. Do you say they are indolent and improvident? I deny it and point to our charitable institutions and poorhouses. They do not furnish their proportion of paupers. Do you ask for their politicians and statesmen? I reply they have never been permitted to honestly and fairly participate in the affairs of this government. Do you ask for their orators? I point to Fred Douglass in many particulars the equal of any man that ever pronounced the English language. Do you ask for their philanthropists and great men? I point to Booker T. Washington that stands today the peer of any man living, in any country, of any race. Do you ask for bravery? I point to almost every battle of the Rebellion. I point to San Juan, and ask you to remember how our soldiers went up that hill in the very jaws of death and hell. I ask you to remember that among the bravest of the brave, the foremost fighting fell on that fearful day, that went down in the fierce whirlwind of the charge, that first placed their country's flag in victory on the crest of that bloody slope, were members of the colored race.

For patriotism, loyalty and patience the Negro surpasses that of any people of any nation, of any race, of any time.

When I remember the past of the Negro race, when I remember that prior to Appomattox its whole history was written in blood and tears, that since then it has been subjected to the most unjust and inhuman indignities and outrages; that it has borne these with patience and fortitude unequal in the annals of the human race, and when I remember that during the awful period from 1861 to 1865 this race was ever true to the flag; that no soldier in Blue ever appealed in vain for aid and assistance to a black face, that thousands of this race sleep today where they fell fighting for the flag; that every field of liberty from Bull Run to Santiago was reddened with Negro blood; when I remember that never has a member of this race been a traitor to his country; then I declare that a race that will fight for the flag as the Negro has done, that will die that this nation might live; that others might be free, then I say he is entitled to all the rights, all the privileges all the protection that this nation can give. I declare that a nation that will not defend its defenders is a disgrace, a blot on the map of the world. I believe that when the declaration of Independence says all men are created free and equal that means what it says. I believe that when the Constitution says that no man shall be disfranchised on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude, that it means what it says.

I believe that the word 'white' should not be interpolated, I believe that the word 'black' should not be blotted from its meaning.

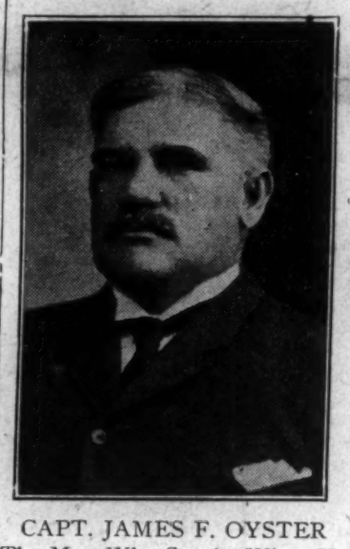
Defends The Schools

Defense of Capt. Oyster.

Said Capt. Oyster:

"The figures are ridiculous and inaccurate. While I do not mean to go into figures right here. I have some which I can use — at a better time perhaps — to prove that the Commissioners are entirely wrong.

"Let me say right here, though, that I am not so much in love with this work that I will fight to keep myself here. But I do resent this charge of extravagance and bad management.



CAPT. JAMES F. OYSTER
The Man Who Speaks When He is Right—A Strong Defense of the Schools

"The schools were once under the Commissioners. Congress took them away from the Commissioners and placed them under a Board of Education. Why did Congress do that? Perhaps the Commissioners think they can run the schools better than any one else.

"I can remember certain school buildings that were in bad condition The health officer made report after report, saying they were not fit for children.

"Could we get the Commissioners to make repairs? No. When we demanded that something be done, what did the Commissioners do? They hid behind closed doors.

"They were afraid to meet the press. They were afraid to meet the public. Yet for three years we have been trying to get those buildings repaired.

Some "Ridiculous" Plans

"How about the plans of the schools? Some of them are ridiculous. When it came to a good school, like the new Mott building, the plans were drawn by some one outside the District building. Another splendid school building, I have it from one of the Commissioners, was planned well, because the plans were copied.

"How about that new school in Mount Pleasant? The school is four feet under the surface, set in a grade. The entrance is down steps, and yet

RICHARD SYLVESTER, MAJOR AND SUPERINTENDENT OF POLICE
Who Has Had More Distinguished Honors Than Any Chief in the World —Honor to the Capital of the Nation.

MAJOR SYLVESTOR.

If there is one man under the District government who tries to do his duty, it is Major and Superintendent of Police Richard Sylvestor. Major Sylvestor has been at the head of the Police Departmen for a number of years and by his upright methods he has succeeded in being elected to the highest position in the association. His name is written on every tongue upon this civilized globe. His record will be the calcium of light of any nation. He has men to deal with which is a hard task. He has all kind of characters to consider. Every man cannot deal with his fellow man and keep his head at the same time. Some people find fault with the Major. So did the Jews find fault with Christ. No man can please everybody, but when a man does his duty, nothing more can be expected of him.

Capt. Gessford is Major Sylvester's chief lieutenant in the conduct of the Police Department. Capt. Gessford is a man who attends to his business and he sees that everybody else attends to their business.

There are some men who imagine that they can run the Police Department better than the Major. Let it ment better than the Major. So it is with some gutter snips who have an idea that they can run a newspaper.

There is no police department in the world that is better disciplined than the police department of the District of Columbia.

A Great Book

AN ERA OF PROGRESS AND PROMISE

One, if not the greatest books that has ever been published showing the rise and progress of the colored American race. It is the book just published, entitled "An Era of Progress and Promise," W. N. Hartshorn of Boston, Mass. If there has ever been, or if there is now any doubt in the minds of the American people that colored Americans are not progressive, shiftless and worthless, all doubts will be banished if they will purchase a copy of "An Era of Progress and Promise," by W. N. Hartshorn. Every conceivable institution of learning of any standing at all, may be seen in this book. Every man of note, with but one exception, appears in this book.

The title of the book is "An Era of progress and promise," 1863-1910. The author says that the book is the story of the religious, moral and Educational development of the American Negro since his emancipation. Pages 5, 2, entitled the "What and Why of this Book," gives a clear and distinct statement of Mr. Hartshorn's purpose in the publication of this work. Mr. Hartshorn follows with the counsel of some of those he had.

It is followed with the personal view of Mr. Hartshorn.

Page 15 gives his opening address at the Clifton Conference, 1908, and page 16, the reader will find a "Touching and Significant Incident" written by Rev. John Little of Louisville, Kentucky, a member of the Conference. Then follows the story of the Clifton Conference, its formal address, and its findings.

This leads up to the religious and moral educational work among the Negroes in the colleges, universities, seminaries, and other higher grade schools of the South, and the pages from 65 to 368 are devoted to discriptions and illustrations of 259 institutions for the education of the Negro. The list of these schools can be found on pages 369 to 371, inclusive, and the index, to be found on page 568, 576, will indicate where these schools may be found in the book. Readers will notice that the author has tried to tell the story of each of these schools, and has presented all the facts concerning them that are in his possession, or that he may have been able to secure.

Pages 385 to 409, inclusive, are devoted to the thirty-two Negro Bishops of the Methodist Churches, with portraits, sketches, and special articles, etc. Then follow two pages of a fine article by Dr. Frissell of Hampton Institute, of the life and work of Dr. Booker T. Washington.

As an evidence of the labor that was exerted Mr. George W. Penniman, the secretary to the chairman wrote to 200 representatives of the colored race and received replies from 155, a portrait of each and a sketch of his life will be found on the pages 413 to 500, inclusive.

Author of the New Era Progress and Promise.

There are sketches of 900 graduates from 50 prominent institutions, and the story of Dr. Boyd's work at Nashville; organizations and funds to help the colored American from 1701 to 1910; an article by Booker T. Washington on "The Bible and Negro Education;" and several pages devoted to evidences of growth and progress of the colored American since his Emancipation.

There is one regret The Bee has to express and that is the failure of this great author to secure the history of the National Training School of Durham, N. C. There is no school in the United States that will equal this one when Dr. Shepard completes it. There is no man in the country that is doing anymore for the colored Americans than Dr. Shepard, and The Bee predicts that his school will be one of the greatest monuments in America.

PEARY'S BIRTHPLACE

Explorer First Saw Light of Day Near Cresson, Pa.

Love of Sea and Adventure an Inherited Trait—Ambitious to Find Pole Ever Since He Was Young Naval Officer.

Johnstown, Pa.—The movement from Maine to Cambria county, in the fifties, which brought to this district the prominent Barker and other families, also made it possible for Cresson, nearly the highest point in the county, to claim the honor of having been the birthplace of Lieut. Robert Edmund Peary, most daring and most persistent Arctic explorer of modern times and claimant for the title of Discoverer of the Pole. The father of Peary was not bothered about polar discovery. The building of "shook shops" and the manufacture and shipment of shook and staves to many distant points was his life work. Maine afforded ample opportunity for the lumber industry with its vast timber acreage, but for some reason the elder Peary thought Cambria county, Pa., also a virgin wooded land, better suited for his purpose, so he located at a point now generally admitted to be on the outskirts of Cresson.

Peary's naval career sheds an interesting light on the question of inherited traits and predilections. The elder Peary, an Englishman, transplanted to Maine, came from forbears who loved the sea. For some reason he did not share this fondness for the bounding wave and deliberately left the shore line for a life far in the interior, away from even inland lakes. But after his father's death Robert E. Peary, then a little boy, was taken back to Maine by his mother, and as a result of his life on the coast and his education the youngster instinctively went back to the life of his ancestors. The whaling industry from New England ports, the coming and going of clipper ships, laden with Maine lumber and many other products, by suggestion and appeal aroused in the youth love of the sea and its adventures. Lieut. Peary's distinct ambition to discover the pole is known to have been born in him as a result of the Greeley expedition and its relief. He was then a young officer in the navy, as were a number of those prominent in the work of exploration at that time, and hence the glory which now shines upon the water arm of Uncle Sam's military service by reflection.

It is strange how soon we are forgotten. People who knew Lieut. Peary's father are not now certain of his Christian name. Charles H. Peary of Chest Springs, a cousin of the explorer and who spells his name Perry, calls the lieutenant's father Charles Peary. Ex-Judge A. V. Barker of Ebensburg is certain his name was George. It has been suggested that perhaps his name was George Charles Peary. However that may be, Mr. and Mrs. Peary on coming into this county located in the woods near what is now Cresson, where Peary established a shook shop. A house standing on the turn of the road from Cresson to Loretto, about 100 yards from the town, is now generally accepted by the people of the county as occupying part of the site of the original Peary home, and is said to actually include a fragment of the old building.

It was in that house that Robert E. Peary was born, and there, two or three years later, his father died. Frank O'Hara, an old farmer living in Munster township, recalls Peary's birth clearly and tells a story of the elder Peary sending a messenger in a conveyance to a point some distance away to fetch a physician. "Kill the horse if you have to," Mr. Peary is alleged to have said to the driver, "but get the doctor here in a hurry." And it's another reminiscence of O'Hara that the elder Peary, who died at Gallitzin, was buried amid a blizzard. "That was like the north pole itself," says the aged Munster man. Peary was buried at Cape Elizabeth, Me.

The only basis for the claim that Peary was born at Chest Springs is the residence there of his cousin, Charles H. Peary's father, James Peary, came from Maine about the same time as George Peary did, but instead of locating at Cresson, settled at Chest Springs and there his children have resided ever since.

George Peary, fortunately, left enough of an estate to make it possible for Mrs. Peary to educate her son thoroughly and he finally found his way to the Naval academy.

House Supposed to Be on Site of Peary's Birthplace and to Include Part of the Old Home.

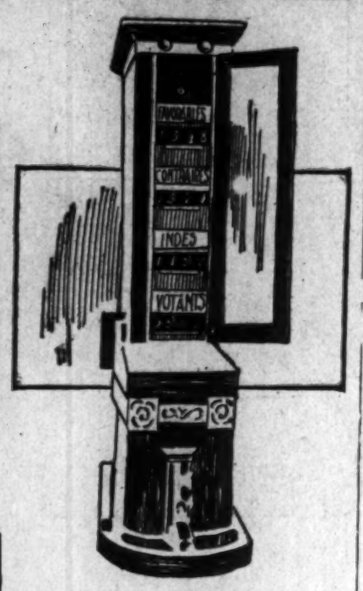
STOPS CROOKED VOTING

Italian Civil Engineer Invents the "Psephograph" to Foil Ballot Box Stuffers.

Rome.—European ballot box stuffers, who are as expert as any of Boss Tweed's henchmen ever were in the palmiest days of corruption in New York politics, soon will find their occupation gone. An Italian civil engineer, Signor Gogiano, has invented a voting machine which, it is claimed, is absolutely ungetatable" and incorruptible. He calls this invention the psephograph. So complete and satisfactory has this machine proved that it had been adopted by both the Italian and the French governments.



New Voting Machine.

The psephograph is a little over a yard in height and is provided with as many openings as there are candidates in the field. The voter presents his card to an official who has charge of the voting booth and receives a small metal chip about the size of an American dime. He is then given permission to enter the booth and steps behind two screens which render him invisible to both the public and the overseers alike. There he finds the voting machine facing him.

After carefully scanning the different slots, above which is a space containing the names of the candidates, he selects the one he wishes to vote for and drops his chip in the slot corresponding to it. The fall of the chip causes an interior lever to rise, this movement making the number of persons voting appear on a little tablet on the outside, which is always visible, and in the interior registering the vote for the chosen candidate. When the voting is over the officer in charge lifts aside the metal covering on which is registered the number of persons voting and the number of votes obtained by each candidate is revealed. By this system 37,000 votes were cast in two hours at a recent election at Turin.

the American Red Cross society to the victims of the recent Italian earthquake.

The crown, a reproduction of the ancient Roman civic crown, is composed of oak leaves and acorns, made of solid gold. It is inclosed in a typical Roman box of leather, which is adorned by the royal coat-of-arms in gold. On the crown is engraved:

"To Miss Mabel Boardman of the Red Cross, from the Italian Government, as a Token of Gratitude, 1908-1909."

Miss Boardman, as the executive head of the Red Cross society, recently announced her intention to devote her life entirely to its interests. She is the sister-in-law of Senator Crane and was a member of the famous Taft Philippine party. While visiting Japan she saw the evidence of the work of the Red Cross in the Russo-Japanese war and was impressed with the boundless possibilities of the movement. She is an intimate friend of both President and Mrs. Taft.

WORTH ADVERTISING FOR

There are 5,499 Negroes employed here in Washington by the Government alone, and these 5,499 Negroes draw salaries aggregating $3,044,404. These more than three millions of dollars are spent right here in Washington, but scattered among the hundreds of tradesmen. Is this amount of money worth bidding for? It certainly is, and not even the largest stores in this city would refuse to get the big end of it did they but realize how much money the Negroes are really spending.

Now The Bee is the only Negro publication in this city. It stands without a rival or competitor, and covers the field like a a few of the merchants in this city will patronize the advertising columns of The Bee, presenting the attractive bargains they may have, these Negroes — these 5,499 Negroes who draw annually from the Government over three millions of dollars — will assume that by patronizing a publication edited and operated by one of their race that such firms desire and deserve their patronage. And such firms will receive the bulk of these over three milions of dollars received and spent by the Negroes of Washington.

What clothing stores, what furniture stores, what dry goods stores and what other lines of business will now make an effort to divert to themselves these over three millions of dollars spent by Washington Negroes by advertising in The Bee?

Place your advertising in The Bee and watch these 5,499 appreciative Negroes spend their over three millions of dollars with you.

Now is the time to advertise in The Bee, the newspaper that goes into every Negro home in Washington. Remember, merchants of Washington, it's what advertising pays you, not what it costs.

THE NEW ARRIVAL

Some men delight in taking up their facile pen and indicting a bitter, withering criticism of others, interspersing their raps with copious quotations from the Bard of Avon and others now mumified has-beens. A chicken that has just broken through the shell is quite frisky, and the man who has just connected up with a small semi-weekly stipend from the government feels it is up to him kill the dragons, and disperse midnight marauders. But these are times for conciliatory words, not for curses. These are times for convincing arguments and logic, not for parading the dusty pages of English literature. These are times for going out and bringing men in, not for driving men out.

It is remarkable how serious some men take themselves. It is trully appalling the audacity some men display in rushing into print.

They use to tell a story down in Kentucky of a man who when asked what constituted a fool replied — "the fellow who don't know his own business." This may and may not be applicable. But one thing is certain, men who aspire to generalship and accept a sargency ought not to rush out onto the stage until the stage manager gets down to the sargents. And it is apparently the belief of every political medicant that strikes Washington that as soon as he gets the dust of Pennsylvania avenue on his worn shoes he must assume unusual proportions. The Bee has watched them come and go, seen them rise and fall, and we will be here to note the fall of more. Take it slow, gentlemen, and remember "the new arrival" is not the only pebble on the beach. There are others, and some of them are just big enough, and wise enough to keep a level head, know when to speak, and what to say.

OPPOSE THE BILL

The recent school bill seems to be approved by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. The passage of such a bill means that the colored people will be deprived of a superintendent of their schools. The colored people insist on having their own superintendent of schools. They are entitled to a superintendent because they pay taxes upon millions of dollars worth of real estate and personal property. It is true that the colored people to a great extent favor the passage of the bill because they are opposed to their own superintendent. The Bee would suggest to those who favor the bill, if they favor it because of their antagonism to the present colored superintendent, it would be better to lay their grievances to the Chairman of the Board of Education.

While the opposition to the schools may be minimized the Senate District Committee is seriously considering the abolition of the office of colored superintendent. If the removal of any one officer will cause this opposition to the present school system so far as the colored people are concerned, The Be thinks it would me more advisable for the Board to look into this unrest in the colored schools.

The Board of Education has and is being imposed upon by irresponsible persons.

OUR SCHOOLS

So far as the management of the finances or expenditures of the public schools are concerned, the people who pay the taxes for the support of the schools, are satisfied. It is in bad taste for any individual to attack the Board of Education. The men and women who constitute the board give their services free of all cost and without hope of reward. This Board has and does more work than the Board of Education that received a salary. Capt. Oyster, the astute president of the Board of Education made a manly defense for himself and the other members of the Board of Education.

The people don't want the schools under the control of the District Commissioners. The schools were formerly controlled by the Commissioners and what was the result? The colored citizens are satisfied with their schools with but one exception and that is well known to the President of the Board of Education. If that evil was eradicated the colored schools would be on a par with the white schools. Certainly there is an unrest in the colored schools, so far as the teachers are concerned. If this alleged fear could be eliminated the colored schools would be in number one working condition. There is a great deal of conflict of authority in the colored schools. Who is to blame for such conditions? If the Board of Education would do a little investigating it would find out something.

This, however, is a side issue. The Bee started out to defend the position of the President of the Board of Education. The Bee doesn't mean to make a defense, but, merely to second the sentiments expressed by the president of the Board, because he has made his own defense.

The people irrespective of color or condition, want no change in the control of their schools.

BY WHAT AUTHORITY

By what authority did an officer from the District Government have to enter the several schools of the District of Columbia and count the pupils? The officer stated that he had been sent by the District Commissioners to count the pupils as there was a controversy going on between the Board of Education and the Commissioners. This act on the part of the Commissioners is sufficant to arouse the people and the Board of Education to indignation. This act is rather presumptuous to say the least. The hands of the Board of Education should be upheld and the Commissioners be made to know their place.

CAPT. J. F. OYSTER SPEAKS

the coal is dumped in from the terrace. We let the children in through the cellar and take the coal in at the attic, as it were.

"And yet they say we are foolish in our administration. How about the wells the Commissioners have dug for us? We can't use the well at Garfield, nor the one at Congress Heights. The Stanton School well is the same way. Hundreds of dollars have been wasted by the Commissoners there."

Comparison With Other Cities.

Capt. Oyster glanced at some figures in his hands at that moment and said that of twenty-six cities named by the Commissioners in their comparison with Washington schools twenty-two devote a larger percentage of their municipal moneys to school purposes than Washington does.

"I said some years ago," continued Capt. Oyster, "that if the District Commissioners don't run their other jobs better than they run the schools, then they ought to quit, and I say the same thing today.

"We are working for the children of this city, and not for the Commissioners, I am thankful to say. I am informed that school conditions today are better than they have been for thirty years, and yet the Commissioners have sent to Congress figures which are wrong, and have made statements which are misleading.

"I thank the members of the board for the confidence they have put in me. Not a recommendation of mine has been turned down."

Washington's Double System.

William Hoover said at this point that in sending the figures to Congress comparing Washington with other cities no mention has been made that Washington's school system is double, carrying a complete equipment for colored children as well as for white. He also said the Commissioners had sent San Francisco's statistics, and that no one knows what is the census of that city since the fire and earthquake there.

Mrs. Mary Church Terrell added her voice against the Commissioners by saying that Maj. Judson had stood in the way of better school conditions in Brookland by using figures in so dazzling a way as to prove that the school already there is in the heart of the community, when the community and members of the board claim it is distinctly not in the center.

Snag in Wall Case

There was also some discussion about the answer which the board's attorney has prepared in the case of the Wall child, excluded from a white school. The colored members of the board refused to sign the answer yesterday. A deadlock on that phase of the controversy is the result.

The board's attorney stated in his answer to the Wall family's attorney that the Wall child is a colored child. The colored members of the board are firm in their stand that the child of a white mother is a white child. It is possible that the matter may be arranged this afternoon so that the trial of the case can be heard.

Mrs. J. Eakin Gadsby and Mrs. F. H. Newell appeared before the board, asking that the school children be taught something about the conservation of natural resources. Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey offered a scholarship in the Washington College of Law to a graduate of the Business High School.

The board granted the request of the Eastern, Western and Central High Schools to hold separate commencements. In asking for the permission for the schools Supt. Stuart impressed the board with his desire for simplicity in dress, music and decorations at these school commencements.

A vote of thanks was given the Instructive Visiting Nurses' Association for some of their work in the schools. A vote of thanks was also given to the owners of the Washington base ball club for their permission to use the base ball park for the High School Cadet drill next month.

A letter was read from Central Labor Union, protesting against the board's action in turning down in advance the benefits of the Morrill act. A letter was also read from the East Washington Heights Citizens' Association stating that high schools ought to have plenty of campus grounds.

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. Meeting last Sunday afternoon, March 27, is one long to be remembered in the history of Y. M. C. A. work. True Reformer's Hall was taxed to its capacity with the members and friends of the organization. Between one thousand and twelve hundred people were present. Prof. Kelly Miller delivered one of the most logical and powerful addresses ever delivered from the platform on the subject "Newness of Life." Miss Charlotte Wallace sang a very beautiful solo, and the Lyric Orchestra added spirit and enthusiasm to the occasion with their melodious airs.

Announcement was made by Mr. Hunton, International Secretary, of the conditional offer of $35,000, that has been made by the Central Association on the condition that the Colored Branch raise $15,000. This announcement was received with great applause, and many people present promised to duplicate subscriptions they have already paid. The Secretary, Mr. Johnson, announced that a check for two hundred dollars had been received from a friend.

A meeting of the members was held on Wednesday night, and plans were discussed for the putting on a campaign to raise $15,000 among the colored people. It was decided to put on a twenty days campaign, commencing April 27, and ending May 17. It is expected that this campaign will eclipse the wonderful campaign by this organization in 1907. Further particulars will be announced at the Men's meeting Sunday afternoon.

The treasurer, Mr. John Joy Edson, (president of the Washington Loan and Trust Company has issued the following statement of receipts and expenditures of moneys received from the beginning of this movement to March 1, 1910.

LAWYERS CLAIM

Resent Action of Former Attorney General Bonaparte in Submitting a Brief.

Manning, S. C., April 7.—Sharply criticising the appearance of former Attorney General Charles J. Bonaparte in the case of "Pink" Franklin now before the United States Supreme Court, a statement issued here yesterday by John Adams, colored, one of the attorneys employed in the original proceedings in this now celebrated case, declares that "if the Franklin case works any credit to the defendant, Franklin, and to the Negro race, it will be the work of two Negro lawyers."

Adams says that the case has not been turned over to Mr. Bonaparte, adding that the former Attorney General's submission of a brief in Franklin's appeal to the Supreme Court is "the work of a few hot-headed Negroes of Philadelphia, who have absolutely no authority to take such a step in the case."

Adams declares that the injection of the race question into the case, through Mr. Bonaparte's brief, is deplorable, adding that he and his associate, Jacob Moorer, "wish nothing of this sort."

Franklin, a Negro, was convicted of the murder of a constable who attempted to serve a warrant on him charging violation of the South Carolina contract labor law. Two Negro lawyers fought his case through the Supreme Court of South Carolina, which sustained the verdict of the lower court, and then carried it to the United States Supreme Court on a writ of certiorari.

The contention of Franklin's counsel is that the contract labor law which Franklin was charged with violating was unconstitutional and the act of the constable in entering his house to serve the warrant amounted to assault and battery, warranting the defendant in using whatever means necessary to defend himself.

SOCIAL SETTLEMENT NOTES

Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth, 1801 Mass. ave., n. w., has granted the request of Miss Eloise Bibb to lend her parlors for a meeting that will be held on Wednesday, April 13, at 4 p. m., in the interest of the Colored Social Settlement. At first President Taft thought it possible and had partly promised to attend this meeting, but the pressure of many duties compelled him to send a second communication expressing his regret that he could not at this time be present. Members of the advisory coucil of the Colored Social Settlement feel with Miss Bibb that President Taft will be sure to grant the next request tendered him by the settlement.

Commissioner Randolph will preside at the meeting to be held at Mrs. Wadsworth's and Mr. Charles F. Waller, general secretary of the Associated Charities of Pittsburg and Dr. Hollis B. Frissell, principal of Hampton Institute will address this meeting together with our own Dr. Thirkield, Prof. Kelly Miller and Judge Wm. H. Delacy.

Mr. Charles F. Wellar will give stereopticon views of the old settlement house, its surroundings, the people whom it helped and also of the new settlement house, the classes at work, and of the gymnasium with its immense crowd of men and boys intent over their amusement. A larger gathering of wealthy philanthropists is expected.

LIBERIA IN HANDS OF U. S.

Must Consent to Control of Expenditures—Polite Snub for Germany

(Special Cable Despatch to The Sun)

London, April 1. — J. Crommelin, the Liberian Minister to Great Britain, says that things are at a standstill in his country pending an announcement of the details of the report of the American commissioners, who now are visiting Liberia, and of the action of the United States. The latter country will not act without communicating with Great Britain, which has already declared that she does not object to America's assisting Liberia in effecting reforms if British rights and financial interests are safeguarded.

Liberia, the Minister adds, will be compelled to assent to the United States controlling her expenditures if she wishes real financial improvement. She is very anxious to have the help of the United States rather than that of any European Power.

Germany is apparently not taking any action in the matter, although the bulk of Liberia's trade is in German hands. The relations between France and Liberia are very friendly. The agreement for a delimitation of the Franco-Liberian boundaries is expected to be signed shortly.

Berlin, April 1. — The story that the German gunboat Sperber was ordered to leave by the Liberian authorities when her commander offered to land an armed force to quell the Kroo rising has drawn out a semi-official denial.

The explanation is offered that the Sperber went to Cape Palmas in February in response to a telegram from German traders, but finding that Europeans were not endangered and the rising was comic rather than serious she put to sea again the next day.

Her commander, however, did offer to clear the assailants from the opposite bank of the river, whence they were firing fusillades at the Liberian troops, but the Liberian Government politely declined the proffered assistance.

SUCCESSOR OF JUDGE PUGH

When Commissioner Cuno Rudolph appointed Mr. Gus A. Schuldt as the successor of Judge James L. Pugh, The Bee was convinced that all the Republicans were not dead. Not that The Bee is opposed to some Democrats, but it had concluded that it would pay better to be a Democrat. All indications showed that Republicans stand a fair chance of being appointed to office. Mr. Schulat is a man of congenial and pleasing disposition. He is not vindictive but a man who will undoubtedly make himself popular with the bar and the people.

Mr. Rudolph could not have made a better selection, and The Bee is convinced that all the other appointments that will be made by Mr. Rudolph will equally as popular and give the same satisfaction as that of Mr. Schuldt. Mr. Schuldt is a popular and wide awake Republican and a strong advocate of good government. In his new position The Bee knows that he will treat all classes of citizens with just and impartial consideration. He has the right idea as to the character of cases that should be sent into court. The Bee wishes him a successful admisistration.

Mr. Schuldt is secretary of the League of Republican Clubs and is a prominent worker in Republican circles. He is a member of Washington Centennial Lodge and Lafayette Chapter, F. A. A. M. He is president of Municipal Council, National Union, and past paymaster of the Loyal Guard. He graduated from the the law department of Columbian University, now George Washington University, and holds a degree from the National Law School.

A BEAUTIFUL LIFE ENDED — MISS DEBORAH DELLA WHITE OF CHICAGO

In this age of hurry and commercial struggle, with many brilliant achievements of mind and success in material ways, it is not customary to call attention to individual worth or merit; unless that particular person posessed some trait of character worthy of the emulation of all.

The announcement that Miss Deborah Della White of Chicago, had passed into the great beyond, came like a tidal wave of sorrow over this and a great many other cities in which she was well known.

To those who knew her personally her life was like a beautiful garden full of sunshine and roses, to know her was to be acquainted with a personality whose guiding spirit was kindliness and consideration. No carping criticism, no ungenerous reflection escaped her lips. The pathway of her life was illumined by a halo of noble aspirations and high endeavor, good will and cheerfulness was the cardinal principles of her life.

These lessons of her earthly career whose pleasant memories rob even death of it's sadness, let us treasure, and may they stimulate others to lead the life of which it may be said, that though the hand that guides and controls our destinies took hold of her so early in life and stepped behind the veil, the rich legacy of love and influence of good cheer remain with us.

The subtle powerful, though silent influence of such a life will bear perennial harvests which even death cannot wither.

The Howard Commercial Club of Howard University held a large and enthusiastic meeting Monay, April 11 at 2 o'clock in the interest of commercial education. Dr. Allen Davis, the able and enegetic principal of the Washington Commercial High School, explained very clearly the meaning of Commercial Education. The great need of the day, he said, is the business manager. We can find houses and servants—land, labor and capital easy enough but the business manager is wanting.

Dr. W. Bruce Evans the principal of the Armstrong Manual Training School, Mr. J. A. Lankford, the president of the Washington Commercial Council, President Thirkield Prof. Wm. A. Joiner and Dean Cook were on the platform as guest of of the club.

Prof. Walter Dyson who was responsible for the success of the meeting, presided. Among other things, he said, that commercial education is like Christianity in this respect at least: "In the United States neither has been tried."

The Lyric Orchestra furnished excellent music for the occasion.

MEN'S MEETING

The Men's Club of 19th Street Baptist Church will have their public monthly meeting at the church, Sunday afternoon, April 24th, at 4 o'clock. Topic, "Present Problems." Speakers, Mr. Jesse Lawson, Attorney Napoeleon Marshall and Attorney W. Calvin Chase. A good musical program has been arranged. The public is invited to attend this meeting. The Easter bazaar under the auspices of the Woman's Guild of St. Luke's Church held recently in the parish hall, netted over two hundred dollars. The affair was held five evenings of last week.

THE JOLLY FOUR

The Jolly Four of the Second Baptist Church, consisting of U. S. Padgett, Harry Smallwood, Douglas Fickland, and R. C. Scott, Jr. will make their first appearance in public in a musical at said church, May 2nd. They have been practicing under the direction of Master Douglas Fickland, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Fickland of 1216 4th street, n. w., who have had their son under the most competent musical instructors in this city and he can now master some of the most difficult pieces. Go and hear these young men and enjoy a musical treat.

AT COSMOPOLITAN

One of the largest crowds that ever assembled in the Cosmopolitan Temple Baptist Church, n. w., between 9th and 10 streets, Washington, D. C. Rev. Simon P. W. Drew, D. D., LL.D., Ph. D., pastor. attended services Easter Sunday, March 27. One of the attractions was the third mortgage burning and $4,000 grand rally which commenced and was continued until Sunday, April 24th. On this occasion some of the most emminent divines graced the occasion.

The opening speakers were: Rev. Henry N. Couden, D.D., Chaplain of the House of Representatives, Congressman Jacob Van V. Olcott, Congressman Wm. S. Bennett of New York, and Congressman Joseph W. Keifer of Ohio, at 3 p. m. The Chaplain Couden spoke as follows:

Practical advice for the solution of the race problem in this country was given by Rev. Dr. Henry N. Couden chaplain of the House of Representatives, in an address yesterday afternoon at the Easter celebration of the Cosmopolitan Temple Baptist Church. The church was celebrating also the burning of the third mortgage on the edifice and preparing for a campaign to raise funds to pay off the second mortgage. Dr. Couden said that undoubtedly there was a real future ahead of the man, whether white or black, with a good technical training.

"He is never without a job," said Dr. Couden. "That is the reason every Negro should urge upon his race the necessity of education. A great church like this can do much to advance the cause."

Dr. S. P. Drew, in introducing Dr. Couden, referred to the burning of the third mortgage of the church at the morning services. He said that it was an occasion for celebration not only by the members of the church, but by the whole community, because the new building will benefit not only members of the church, but every man, woman and child in the District.

"Good citizenship, like bad, affects everybody. Personal rights and property interests are to be obtained not by laws, but by the public opinion back of the laws, and that will be available in proportion to its moral quality."

Dr. S. P. W. Drew, preached two Easter sermons at 11 a. m., and at 8 p. m., Easter Monday, March 28th, 8 p. m. Third mortgage burning took place after addresses by Rev. S. H. Woodrow, D. D., pastor of the First Congregational Church (white), Rev. Charles Wood, D. D., pastor of the Church of the Covenent (white), Mrs. Eliza Campbell, one of the oldest members of the said Church burnt the third mortgage. Tuesday, March 29th, at 8 p. m., Judge Wm. H. De Lacy of the Juvenile Court, and Editor W. Calvin Chase of The Bee delivered addresses.

IT IS THE NEW EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION

WASHINGTON IS THE SEAT OF OUR NATION'S GOVERNMENT.

The eyes of the world are on Washington..

One-third of Washington's population is Negro.

If all the Negroes in Washington were colonized in one place they would make a city larger than Richmond, Virginia.

There are seven theatres in Washington, supported by a white population of 241,923—and a few foolish Negroes willing to be colonized in the galleries, the only place to which the Negro is admitted.

THERE IS NOT A SINGLE FIRST-CLASS OFFICE BUILDING in the city of Washington, where a colored professional or business man or woman, and there are hundreds of them in the National Capital, can obtain business quarters.

JUST THINK OF IT! 100,000 enterprising, thrifty, intelligent people, through race prejudice, swept completely out of the business district of Washington; 100,000 genteel, prosperous, amusement loving people deprived of every form of theatrical entertainment unless willing to submit to the most humiliating conditions.

Every colored man and woman IN Washington.

Every colored man and woman VISITING Washington.

Every colored man and woman in America, familiar with the true state of the Negro in Washington, realizes that a theatre, store, and office building, operated by the Negroes, for the Negroes, is A NECESSITY.

The welfare of the race demands it.

The self-respect of the race demands it.

Any enterprise resting its hope of success upon a NECESSITY is bound to be a SUCCESS.

A THEATRE AND OFFICE BUILDING IN THE CITY OF WASHINGTON, built by Negroes, for the use of Negroes, is a NECESSITY.

Appreciating to the utmost that fact—

THE LINCOLN MEMORIAL BUILDING COMPANY proposes to erect in the Central Business District of the city of Washington a magnificent theatre, seating capacity 2,500, and a store and office building of splendid proportion, adequate in every respect to meet the requirements of prosperous professional and business men.

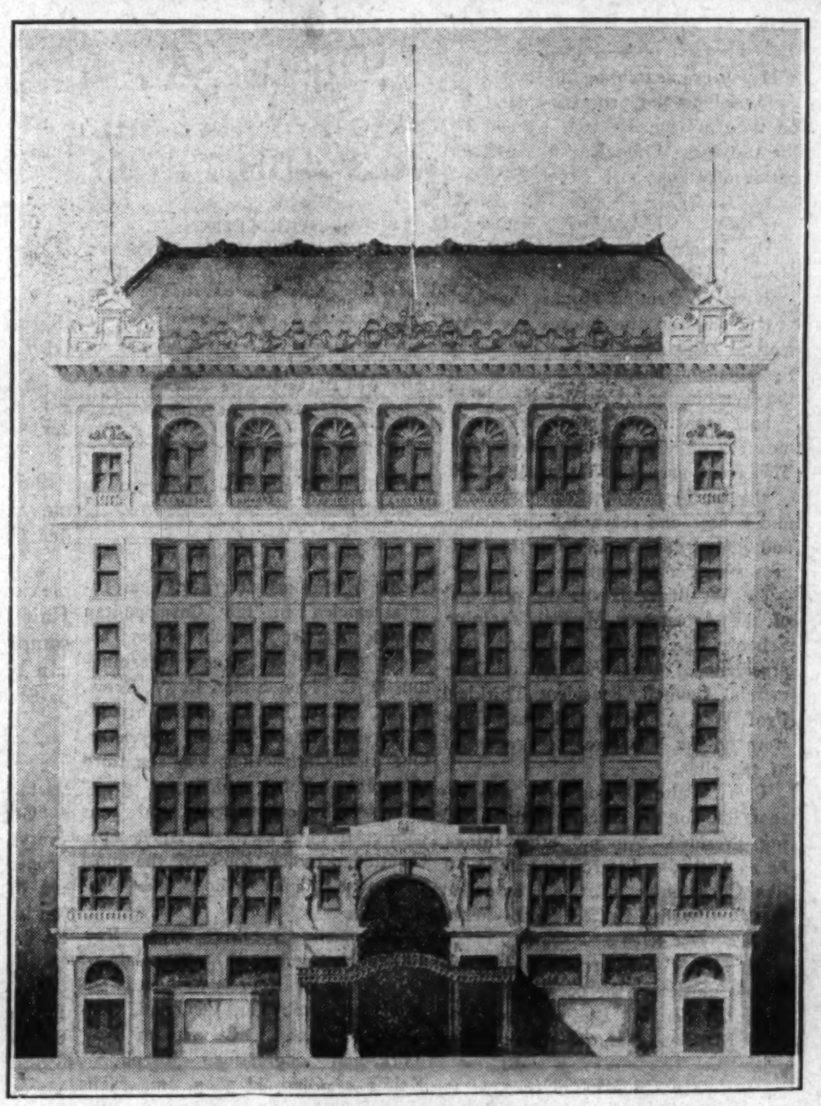
The enterprise is exceptional in two respects:

First—It is absolutely safe.

Second—It promises enormous possibilities as a money maker.

Features that must appeal to every man or woman with a few dollars to invest, and you are such a man or woman or you would not have read this far.

THE LINCOLN MEMORIAL BUILDING COMPANY has surveyed the field carefully, and it KNOWS that hundreds of tenants are available for the offices, that dozens of merchants are ready to rent the stores, and that 100,000 people are anxious to patronize the theatre exclusively, and make it the best paying amusement place in America.



Proposed Front Elevation
LINCOLN MEMORIAL OFFICE AND THEATRE BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D. C.

IT KNOWS ALL THIS AND IT INVITES YOU TO PARTICIPATE in an enterprise ABSOLUTELY DEVOID OF RISK, where every dollar will be invested in the best of Washington Real Estate, that increases in value annually at the rate of 5⅝ per cent—nearly DOUBLE bank interest.

Even that is good enough for most people, but the LINCOLN MEMORIAL BUILDING COMPANY will do better than that. It will have offices and stores and lodge rooms, which will earn, on a conservative estimate, at least $23,200 per year. Equal to 5 9-10 per cent per annum.

It will also have a theatre, which, if patronized at prices ranging from 10 to 50 cents, by only 1 per cent of the total colored population of the city of Washington, will enable the Company to pay 15 per cent on its total capitalization. Equal in all to 20 9-10 per cent, to which may be added the land value increase of 5⅝ per cent.

Now, all this is Conservatively Estimated.

Banks and Insurance Companies engage in enterprises like this with their depositors' and policyholders' money—YOUR money, but YOU get only about 3 or 3½ per cent. The banks or insurance companies keep the balance.

THE LINCOLN MEMORIAL BUILDING COMPANY is ENTIRELY NEGRO.

Not one dollar of white capital will be accepted in exchange for its securities.

There is not one dollar of Promotion Stock, consequently there is no watered stock.

Every holder of stock from the President down must pay at LEAST $10.00 per share for every share of stock allotted to him.

This does not mean that the price of stock will REMAIN at $10.00 per share. It is $10.00 NOW. It will advance in price far beyond $10.00, just as railroad and public utility stock goes to several times par. So will the Lincoln Memorial Building Company's stock go to several times its present value.

This means that a share of stock costing $10.00 NOW will be worth $40.00 when stock goes to four times par. Estimates show that the Company's earnings will be 20 per cent, and that is four times par, with every dollar invested in Real Estate. THE BEST in the city of Washington, where values are as firmly fixed as the Rock of Gibraltar.

This does not mean that the price of stock will remain at $10.00 per share. It is $10.00 NOW. If the Company, as it is estimated, pays 20 per cent, a $10.00 share of stock will be worth $40.00. If it pays 40 per cent, a single share of $10.00 stock will be worth $80.00. Just as railroads and public utility stocks increase in value, so will the Lincoln Memorial Building Company's stock increase in price.

The first allotment of stock at $10.00 a share is being rapidly subscribed, and the next allotment will be $12.50 per share, to which point it will soon be advanced; therefore, you are urged to avail yourself of the present opportunity to get in as completely on the ground floor as any one of the Company's Directors are.

The Company's Directors, by the way, are men of sterling worth, integrity and honor, as you are possibly aware, or can easily ascertain through any COMMERCIAL AGENCY.

Their names are at the top of this page. They have unbounded faith in the future of the Company. They have invested THEIR hard earned money in it, and they advise you to invest YOUR money side by side with theirs.

DON'T WAIT UNTIL IT IS TOO LATE.

The price of stock is $10.00 per share, payable $1.00 down and $1.00 per month for nine months upon each share subscribed for.

DO IT NOW.

Before you lay this paper down cut out the coupon on the lefthand corner of this page and mail to-day, with remittance for first payment, if for but one share of stock.

We shall be glad at all times to give you any further information desired, and again invite you to join us in this enterprise.

Very truly yours,

LINCOLN MEMORIAL BUILDING COMPANY,

Old Colonial Records Show Act Was Attempted in 1656 — The Punishment.

It is not necessary to give up our pious faith in the superior political morality of our forefathers when we learn that even in the first generation of Bostonians was found a ballot stuffer.

The same record which reveals this break records also its instant repudiation and punishment. It was on the fourteenth day of January, 1655, 25 years after the settlement of Boston, according to the quaint records preserved of the king's chapel, that a referendum was held as to whether a part of the land should be alienated.

The old chronicle runs: "The Inhabitants proceeded to bring in their votes; and when the Selectmen were receiving 'em at the Door of the Hall they observed one of the Innabitants, viz., John Pigeon, to put in about a dozen with the word Yea wrote on all of 'em, being charged with so doing, he acknowledged it, and was thereupon Ordered by the Moderator to pay a Fine of Five Pounds for putting in the settlement of Boston according to the more than One Vote according to Law, and the Moderator thereupon declared to the Inhabitants that they must draw and bring in their Votes again in Manner as before directed, and the Inhabitants accordingly withdrew and the Votes being brought in and sorted it appeared that there were Four Hundred and two votes and that there was two hundred and five Yeas and one hundred and ninety-seven Nays." — Boston Transcript.

BITTER WAS THE AWAKENING

Sleeping Owner of Millions Brought Back to Earth by Stern Yet Modest Demand.

"I dreamed last night that beginning with $100 I pyramided my bets on the stock market so that in a little while I had $2,000,000,000," said one of the artist colony in West Sixty-seventh street yesterday. "A crowd of people came to me and besought me to cease speculating. They pointed out that I had more money than I could ever spend and if I kept on I would own all there was in the world. I replied that I wanted a billion dollars more for my own use and that I proposed with the two billion I already had to establish a great institution where all the artists and writers and sculptors might work free from pecuniary annoyances, and raise the standard of beauty in all the arts throughout the world. The last man who came to beg me to stop making money was my attorney. I turned a deaf ear to his entreaties and finally he sternly demanded of me the two dollars and a half that I had borrowed from him last week. Then I woke up."—New York Press.

SKELETON MILITARY MAST

Picturesque Feature of the Battleship Is Being Supplanted By a Structure of Steel.

Boston.—One of the most picturesque features of the battleship is rapidly on its way to the scrap heap. The military mast, that heavy steel column of which most ships of Uncle Sam's navy carried a pair, fore and aft, which had fighting tops from the platforms of which machine guns could be used to pop away at torpedo boats or like craft, is being regarded as obsolete.

The military mast was considered not so very long ago, a formidable feature of the equipment of a battleship. Now, it is being supplanted by a skeleton mast, a stranded structure of steel sufficiently open in its interlacing of supports to permit of the least possible damage from the shots of the enemy.

New and Old Masts of the Battleship Missouri.

It has been shown by experiments that this form of structure will stand the greatest amount of puncture from shots before it collapses, and so the navy department is replacing the more or less solid structures with this grapevine arrangement.

The new mast, while rising to the height of the topmast of the old style, is only about one-fifth of the weight, averaging about 7,000 pounds, as against 34,000 pounds of most masts of the old style. The height of the new masts from the water to the lookout is about 120 feet, or approximately the same as the old ones, but the "eye" of the ship is infinitely safer on the top of the new masts than it was on the top of the old wooden topmasts.

The illustration very adequately shows the masts on the battleship Missouri recently fitting at the Charlestown navy yard, the foremast being the new model and the mainmast the old.

NEGRO AT THE NORTH POLE

Matthew Henson, Peary's Valet, Proves That Black Man Can Stand Coldest Weather.

New York.—The general supposition that the negro can't stand cold weather and is a warm climate person only, is refuted in the case of Matthew Henson, Commander Robert E. Peary's personal servant. Among the interesting announcements connected with the north pole discovery was the statement that Henson was the only civilized person with Peary when the top of the world was discovered. Henson, in fact, says it was he who raised the stars and stripes at the "great rail" and that he taught the Eskimos to cheer when the American flag was unfurled.

Walter Kitchener at Disadvantage.

Gen. Walter Kitchener, who is stationed at Bermuda, is a brother of Lord Kitchener, and this fact has worked against him rather than for him. He is considered a clever soldier in England, and at the time of the war in South Africa it was thought that he would receive an important post that would become vacant. He was passed over and his brother, Lord Kitchener, was asked for the reason. "It should have gone to my brother," he said, "but if I had given it to him everybody would have yelled 'favoritism' at the top of their voices, so I picked someone else."

Walter Kitchener was expected at Cape Town at a railway station once when an old lady rushed in excitedly and asked at what platform Lord Kitchener was expected to arrive. No one seemed to know anything about his visit until it finally dawned upon the staff officer that she had heard of the arrival of his brother. He informed her that this was only Kitchener that was expected. "I call it a shame that this man, whoever he may be, should be allowed to use Lord Kitchener's name; the government ought to do something about it," she said, stalking majestically out of the station.

"PEGGOTTY" HUT A SAD RUIN

Yarmouth Scenes Which Dickens Described in His Story of "David Copperfield."

London.—A Yarmouth hundred of herring really counts 132, and in many ways the inhabitants of the old town are credited with an open-handed generosity. Peggotty told David Copperfield, you remember, that it was the finest place in the universe, to which the boy replied that "a mound or two might have improved it, and also that if the land had been a little more separated from the sea and the town and the tide had not been quite so much mixed up, like toast and water, it would have been much nicer." But presently, when he got into the streets and "smelt the fish and pitch, and oakum, and tallow, and saw the sailors walking about and the carts jingling up and down over the stones," Young Copperfield admitted that he had done Yarmouth an injustice.

The remains of Peggotty's hut may still be seen, sad and forlorn, alas! but suggestive nevertheless of the quaint home where David was so happy, of Peggotty's jokes, of little Emily's pretty ways and of the dolefulness of Mrs. Gummidge. There are many ancient buildings that have stood the test of time better than the queer boat-home of Peggotty. Formerly Yarmouth was one of the principal ports of England, and its merchant adventurers enjoyed the patronage of Queen Elizabeth. Its Tolhouse claims to be the oldest municipal building in the kingdom.

Deadheads Must Be Coaxed.

Concert givers in Germany find it more and more difficult to get an audience. Free tickets by no means insures one. A Berlin journal tells how audiences at recitals (Berlin often has more than 50 of them in one week) are apt to be made up.

Miss N., who plays or sings, sends out about 200 tickets, some of them to prominent persons. One of these is the wife of Prof. X. She kindly accepts the ticket, but has no intention of attending the concert, so she gives them to her dressmaker, who in turn bestows them upon her assistants, who probably may go to the concert. In one case it was found that of 200 free tickets only 47 were used.—Musical America.

Pulsation and Respiration.

Before birth the average number of pulsations per minute is 150; in the newly born, 140 to 130; during the first year, 130 to 115; second year, 115 to 100; seventh year, 90 to 85; fourteenth year, 85 to 80; adult life, 80 to 70; old age, 70 to 60.

At birth there are 44 respirations in one minute; at five years of age, 26; from 15 to 20, 20; from 20 to 25, 18.7; from 25 to 30, 16; from 30 to 50, 18.1. The average ratio which the number of respirations bears to the number of pulsations in a given time is 1:4½.

The temperature of a healthy human adult averages from 98.4 to 96.6, but 97.5 and 99 F. are within normal.

A CHANCE FOR REAL FREEDOM

There are many colored families who are living in crowded houses on small plots of land in towns or cities who want real freedom and real opportunity for themselves and for their children. It is very difficult to rear children in a crowded town or city. The place to rear children is in the country.

In Macon County, Alabama, the colored people have a rare and exceptional opportunity. This is the county in which The Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute is located. There is plenty of good land for sale on easy terms. There is a good schoolhouse, and the school term lasting from seven to eight months in every part of the county. The white people in Macon County are of the very best class. There is no disorder or racial trouble. We advise colored people who are now living in crowded towns or cities, in the North or in the South, and especially those who have children to raise to come to Macon County and buy a home where they can get plenty of land to cultivate and rear their families in the county free from the temptations of the cities and towns.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Schwartz, jeweler and optician, 824 Seventh street northwest, in this issue of The Bee. This is one of the best and most thorough jewelry store in this city. Everything in this store is first class in every detail. Your eyeglasses are fitted, your eyes examined, and the very best material is used in the construction of your glasses. Satisfaction is guaranteed in everything that is sold, or your money refunded. He is a friend of the race, and you won't regret dealing in this store.

PRACTICE WHAT YOU PREACH IS THE MOTTO OF REV. L. C. MOORE

Mr. Moore has been doing missionary work for the past six months at a great financial sacrifice. He has given away more than $150 dollars in awards to Sunday Schools consisting of new books and other valuable gifts. His grand effort has added 457 new members to the Sabbath Schools. His good work is still going on no telling when he will close his campaign against sin and vice. Never before has any one entered into such a broad field of Christian labor in the District with money earned by the sweat of the brow. Yet he makes no noise, he says, "he is by this method paying God for what he has done for him as a motherless and fatherless boy with one month's schooling. He was elected to the Legislature of Mississippi in 1880, defeated in 82, elected again in 84. Appointed a watchman in the Interior Department in 1886.

He is now chief in charge of the Le Droit Building, Eighth and F st., n.w., and counselor for 2,400 Indians in the State of Oklahoma.

It is not a fashion bazaar, yet all the fashionable people can be seen at the drug store of Board and McGuire, right there on the popular Fourteenth street promenade, between Tea and You streets.

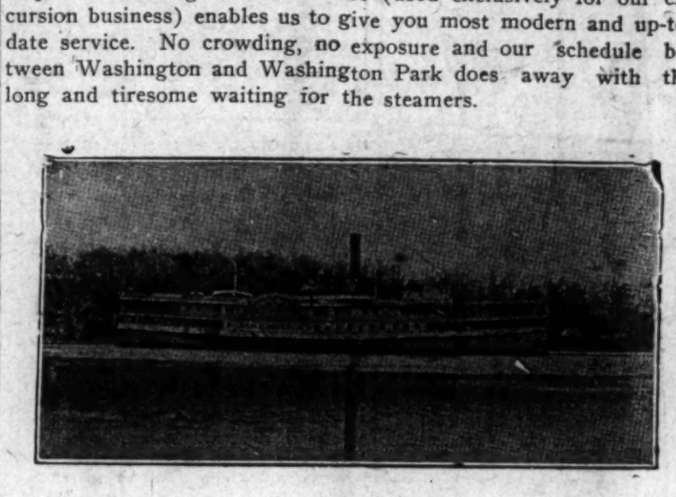
It is with pleasure that I take this opportunity to inform you that the books of the Independent Steamboat and Barge Company are now open for charters for Excursions during the coming season, and it will be to your interest to call at once and secure the most desirable dates.

Our terms are most liberal andcharters can be made for Washington Park and Somerset Beach

To which place we have the exclusive excursion rights as well as Mathias Point, Rock Point, Norfolk, White City, Richmond, Baltimore and all points on the Potomac River and Chesapeake Bay

Our facilities for chartering parties are unsurpassed in every respect. Our large covered wharf (used exclusively for our excursion business) enables us to give you most modern and up-to-date service. No crowding, no exposure and our schedule between Washington and Washington Park does away with the long and tiresome waiting for the steamers.



Before the construction of Washington Park absolutely no place of recreation was affordedthe people of our race, and I proudly point to the fact that I have fulfilled the demands of the people in every respect.

You have one of the best and most modernly improved resorts in this part of the country.Washington Park with its myriads of electric lights, mammoth scenic railway, huge carroussel, dance hall and numerous smaller amusement devices is surpassed in point of natural beauty and modern equipment by no resort south of New York.

By perseverance and an enormous cash outlay I have done this, and now I ask you to show me that I have your hearty support by calling at once and making charters for the coming season.

Yours for pleasuure and comfort,
Lewis Jefferson. 1910 First Street, S. W.

Ford's Hair Pomade

Fifty years of success have proved the merits of the preparation.

What is more attractive than a beautiful head of hair? It has been the ambition of women in all ages. The use of Ford's Hair Pomade makes stubborn, harsh, kinky or curly hair softer, more pliable and glossy, easy to comb and arrange in any style desired consistent with the length, as long as the Pomade remains in the hair. LADIES LOOK!

Every lady can have a beautiful and luxuriant head of hair if she uses a MAGIC. After a shampoo or bath the Magic dries the hair, removing the dandruff; and it will straighten the curliest head of hair.

The Magic will not burn or injure the hair, because the comb is never heated. The steel heating bar which irons the hair, is alone, put into the flame of the alcohol or gas heater.

The Aluminum Comb is easily detached from the heating bar, then, after the bar is heated the comb goes back into place and is held by a turn of the handle.

The Magic Heater is also suitable for curling irons, has a cover and can be carried in a hand bag. Magic Shampoo Drier $1.00. Magic Alcohol Heater $0.50. Liberal terms to agents. Write for literature today.
